An aerial view of a Counter-Strike map, likely Mirage, showing a tactical layout. Green semi-transparent rectangles highlight specific areas: a large one on the left side, two in the center, and two on the right. A red line traces a path from the top left, through the central green areas, and down to a red text label 'ctf 11 (9)'. Another red line points from the bottom left to a red text label 'finish B'. The map features a blue body of water at the bottom and various in-game structures and terrain.
